FOREWORD

Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta Smriti Mahavidyalaya is a rural College established in 1996 and is associated with the name of Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta, the younger brother of the celebrated Swami Vivekananda and a pioneering personality of the glorious Bengal Renaissance. Dr. Dutta's involvement with Hatgobindapur and its surrounding areas went back to pre-independence days when he was involved to bring about the much needed socio-economic development of this rural area. To commemorate his work and contribution, a decision had been taken in a mass meeting in 1983 to establish a general degree college in the name of Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta and thereafter Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta Smriti Mahavidyalaya was established in 1996, as a State Govt. Aided College affiliated to The University of Burdwan.

About Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta :

Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta (Born on 04.09.1880), younger brother of Swami Vivekananda, was among the most illustrious figures of the Bengal Renaissance and a dedicated nationalist. Influenced as he was by the writings of Garibaldi and Karl Marx, Bhupendra Nath Dutta joined the All India Revolutionary Society and his revolutionary consciousness was expressed in his writings in the weekly Jugantar and Manifesto, Sonar Bangla for which the British authorities jailed him. At the end of his prison term he sailed to America and after graduating from the New York University in 1912, he earned a masters' degree from the Brown University in 1914. When he visited Southern Europe in 1915 he came across other Indian revolutionaries and was elected the Secretary of the Berlin Committee for the period 1916-1918. Simultaneous with his revolutionary activities he carried on academic research in Sociology and anthropology that earned him his Doctorate degree from Hamburg University in 1923. This immensely gifted scholar revolutionary authored a number of books that included among others Indian Social System (3 volumes), "Dialectics of Hindu Ritualism" and "Agony of the Age". In India Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta was passionately involved in championing the cause of farmers and agricultural workers. One of the Presidents of Bengal Provincial Kisan Sabha, he was twice elected President of All India Trade Union Congress. Dr. Bhupendra Nath Dutta dedicated his life for the cause of Socio-economic advancement of the rural poor and the under-privileged. He died on 25.12.1961.

VISION AND MISSION OF THE COLLEGE

- (a) To open new avenues for the rural students for enabling them to pursue higher education.
