Indian Knowledge System: Methods In Indian Philosophy.

The department organized an advanced learner's programme on 'Indian knowledge system: methods in Indian philosophy' from 1st ^{June} to 30th ^{July}. Students participated in a total of twenty-five. This programme was completed. Following students admitted in M.A. after graduation. We hope they will complete the research work after completing their M.A. We expect this programme will help them to a great extent in their master's degree and Ph.D work.

At the end of this programme, we saw that a few students were admitted to master's level. The student's name has been given below.
